KUBLIHAN

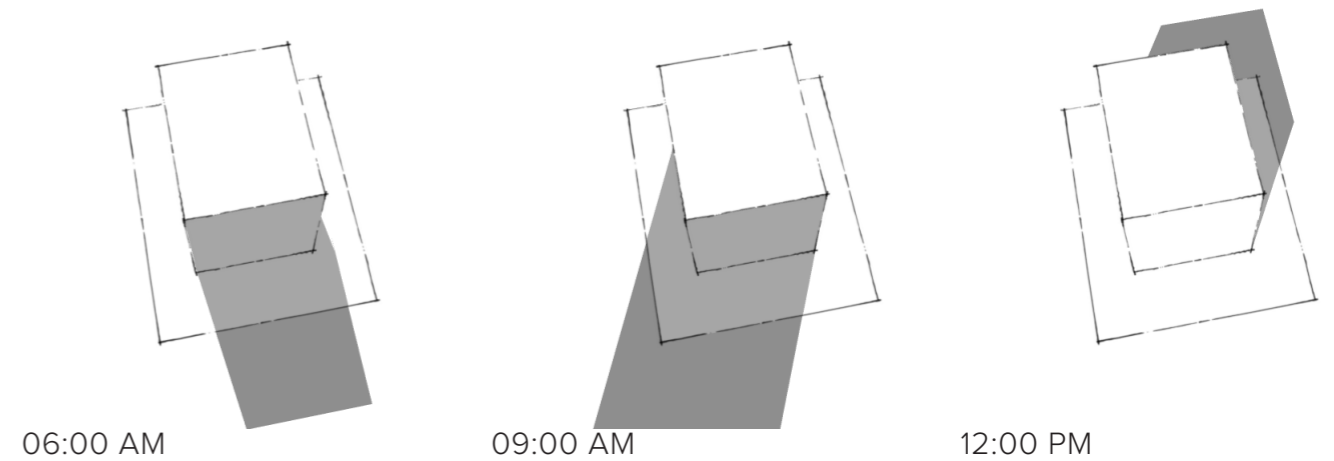

A FAMILY RETREAT

COZY SIMPLE TROPICAL ASIAN

A place for a family to gather, hide away from the hustle and bustle of the city, and enjoy each other's company. The designer's vision lie in the idea that the family which will retreat and reside in this space shall be ultimately comfortable without unnecessary fuss, and that the home shall be in context functionally, culturally, and aesthetically. A kublihan, a place for retreat.

The small village is relatively cool during the day due to the presence of much vegetation, although potential for urban sprawl is felt, thus the need for a larger allocated space for planters and vegetation within the lot.

DESIGN PROCESS

(1) form building according to sun path and wind pattern to alleviate solar exposure / heat in most habited spaces and to maximize light, cross ventilation and passive cooling

(2) consider users and activities, apply building code and village association restrictions and allow for open space expansion, and vegetation. adapt to taste and preference of client.

(3) treat for sustainable building use, dynamic, and aesthetic accordingly.
